

Geta

Arik Levy

Technical

Geta is an exceptionally versatile collection of cabinets in a wide range of sizes and configurations to meet a multitude of storage requirements. The Geta cabinet derives its name from the traditional Japanese wooden sandals or 'geta'. With an oak plinth and oak veneered or satin paint carcass, Geta comes with a combination of doors, drawers, sliding doors and open storage that can be finished in oak veneer or a range of colours.

Materials

Carcass	MDF carcass available in a matt paint finish
Plinth	Veneered and solid oak with matt lacquer
Interior	Veneered or lacquered to match exterior
Optional	Veneered oak carcass and cable management
